Services Provided

The On-the-Job Training (OJT) Program offers reimbursement to employers who provide customized job training for participants. Employers can be in the public, private or nonprofit sector.

- Employers will be reimbursed for up to 50 percent of the participant wages during training.
- An OJT contract must be negotiated prior to the hire
- OJT reimbursement contracts will not exceed six months

Eligibility Criteria

OJT: You must have a Federal Employee Identification Number (FEIN), a business in Utah and at least one employee, and you must be current with your state Unemployment Insurance Contribution taxes. You must also:

- Comply with all labor laws, including minimum wage requirements
- Provide workers' compensation or similar insurance to employees
- Sign a training agreement with us before hiring an OJT employee
- Plan to provide permanent employment after the training period

Referral Process

Participating employers must sign an agreement before hiring an OJT or EIO employee. For additional information and to sign a contract, please contact the nearest employment center (for locations visit <http://jobs.utah.gov/regions/ec.html>).
